SCHOOL CAMPAIGN IS LIVELY IN LOGAN

Democrats and Progressives in Merger That Causes Insurgency.

Special to The Tribune.
LOGAN, Dec. 3.—The election of members of the Logan city board of education, which occurs tomorrow, is causing much political excitement as did the recent campaign. The contest in second ward promises to be particularly lively. There the Democrats and Progressives named Charles England, ran for secretary of state on the separate ticket in the campaign just closed.

Saturday evening, when the so-called nonpartisan convention met in that there was a sufficient number of Democrats present to carry through the merger of England. Now some of the disappointed ones are attempting to carry a third ticket in the field there, and carry time is promised for Wednesday evening.

Enough, the so-called nonpartisans are not pledged at all, while the Democratic-Progressive nominees are pledged to a policy of nonpartisanism in their work on the board.

MENACES DIVORCE COLONY.

Judge Urges Radical Changes in Separation Laws.

Special to The Tribune.
BOISE, Dec. 3.—The divorce colony of Boise, which has become a rival of Reno, is being threatened by a direct attack from Judge Carl A. Davis of the district court for Ada county, who, in compliance with the law, has filed with the court of this state a report recommending that the divorce laws be amended to prevent the divorce colony from becoming a menace to the state.

Among his recommendations are those that the minimum age for marriage be lowered from 18 to 16 for women and 21 for men; that the public schools prepare children for marriage by teaching them the duties of marriage; that the state board of health be empowered to issue licenses to persons who are engaged in the business of promoting divorce; that the period of the state board of health be secured before divorce can be secured; that the state be placed at twelve instead of six months. The report has attracted much attention.

Brady Confident of Toga.

Special to The Tribune.
POCATELLO, Idaho, Dec. 3.—Former Governor James H. Brady arrived here tonight from a trip to Boise where he had been for a few days in connection with his candidacy for the United States senate. The outlook is very bright and that the election of the legislature when it convenes in January.

At a meeting of the county central committee of the Republican party of Pocatello, Saturday afternoon, Governor Brady was endorsed by a very large majority for the United States senate. He extended Governor Brady, and all honorable and energetic means to promote that his election be secured.

Some of the prominent leaders outside points present were Leroy Brown, C. W. H. Coffin of Dore, Charles Bassett of Lago, A. J. Lee and T. M. Edwards of McCammon, M. C. Colm of Oueda.

Keith O'Brien Co

Keith-O'Brien---Pathfinder

The new Keith-O'Brien store, pathfinder in an undeveloped retail district, marks an epoch in retail circles in Salt Lake, in manner similar to the memorable opening of the store nearly ten years ago.

Of course, there are greater emporiums in larger cities, but in no community of equal size is there a larger and finer store.

The quiet richness of new mahogany fixtures which line long and spacious aisles; new lighting effects, augmented by regal displays of merchandise, will leave on the minds of all who view the interesting interior for the first time, an indelible impression of excellence.

The Keith-O'Brien store represents the newest ideas in store planning and in providing for every convenience for patrons.
